

TENNESSEE
COMPTROLLER
OF THE TREASURY

L. Rene Brison

Assistant Director, Special Investigations Unit

L. Rene Brison is the Assistant Director of the Tennessee Comptroller's Special Investigations Unit. Rene is responsible for overseeing and directing investigations involving fraud, waste and abuse in local governments, state agencies, and other publicly funded entities.

Rene has worked with the Comptroller's Office for 30 years. She has directed hundreds of investigations, resulting in the discovery of millions of dollars in fraud, waste and abuse and the prosecution of dozens of public officials and employees.

Rene has also provided expert witness testimony at trial and has worked closely with the TBI, the FBI, local District Attorneys General and local law enforcement groups. She is also well versed in the laws and requirements involving internal school funds and school support organizations.

A graduate of the University of Tennessee at Martin, Rene is also a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Fraud Examiner. She is a member of the National Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, and has served as president of the Middle Tennessee Chapter. She frequently provides training to professional groups related to fraud and internal process deficiencies.
